

CUT FLOWERS

FOCAL FLOWERS

Large, showy blooms to build your bouquet around. Also make impressive single species bouquets.

- China Aster +
- Dahlia
- Gladiola +
- Hydrangea (shrub) +
- Lily, asiatic and stargazer +
- Lisianthus +
- Narcissus
- Marigold, African +
- Peony (perennial)
- Poppy -
- Rose (shrub)
- Rudbeckia +
- Sunflower
- Tulip
- Zinnia +

TEXTURE AND FOLIAGE

Foliage is what makes a floral arrangement complete and can provide structure. Many of these plants will have a long vase life and you can switch out blooms while keeping the same green backdrop.

- Angelica
- Artemisia +
- Baptisia (perennial) +
- Basil, all types
- Coleus
- Eucalyptus +
- Euphorbia
- Fern (perennial) +
- Flax, seed pods
- Hedera +
- Hosta (perennial)
- Mint (perennial)
- Ornamental and Wild Grasses
- Oregano (perennial)
- Physocarpus (shrub)
- Scented Geranium +
- Vines
- Willows (shrub)

SUPPORTING ROLE

Smaller flowers and sprays of flowers to add more color and interest to bouquets. Easy to fit into existing gardens.

- Achillea (perennial)
- Ageratum +
- Ammi
- Anemone, Japanese (perennial)
- Asclepias curassavica
- Bachelor's Button
- Calendula
- Celosia
- Cleome -
- Craspedia +
- Digitalis (biennial)
- Didiscus Lace Flower
- Echinacea (perennial)
- Feverfew +
- Gomphrena +
- Larkspur
- Lavatera
- Marigold
- Nasturtium
- Nicotiana
- Nigella
- Ornamental Millet
- Phlox drummondii
- Scabiosa
- Snapdragon
- Strawflower
- Sweet Pea -

AIRY SPARKLES

These flowers and seed heads bring magic and movement to arrangements. Often the finishing touch, get creative.

- Bleeding Hearts (perennial) +
- Berries
- Bunny Tails
- Cosmos
- Cress
- Dara
- Nicotiana
- Nigella
- Sea Oats +
- Talinum, seed pods

DRIED ARRANGEMENTS

These are great candidates for drying, but it's worth experimenting with other plants! Hang upside down in a dark place to dry. Can be used in forever bouquets or wreaths.

- Celosia
- Craspedia
- Eucalyptus
- Gomphrena
- Nigella, seed pods
- Ornamental Millet
- Poppy, seed pods
- Statice
- Strawflower

+ indicates long vase life
- indicates short vase life